Disability Program Navigator

The Disability Program Navigator Initiative is a joint effort of the US Department of Labor and the Social Security Administration.

This initiative is developing new and ongoing partnerships to achieve seamless, comprehensive, and integrated access to services, creating systemic change, and expanding the workforce development system's capacity to serve customers with disabilities and employers.

We are trying to get you back on the road to success!

What do Navigators do?

- Assist individuals with disabilities to navigate through the many challenges of acquiring and obtaining work and or training.
- Educate employers on the great opportunities of hiring individuals with disabilities.
- Serve as a resource and partner to other beneficial organizations and agencies.
- Instruct others on up-to-date assistive technology, programs, and services.
- Conduct outreach to agencies and organizations that serve people with disabilities.
- Issue monthly newsletters to share information on events, organizations, ADA info, and other beneficial information.

If you would like to sign up for a free e-newsletter, just contact a local Navigator.

If you would like to speak with a Disability Program Navigator, please call to set up an appointment.
